About Fluxible

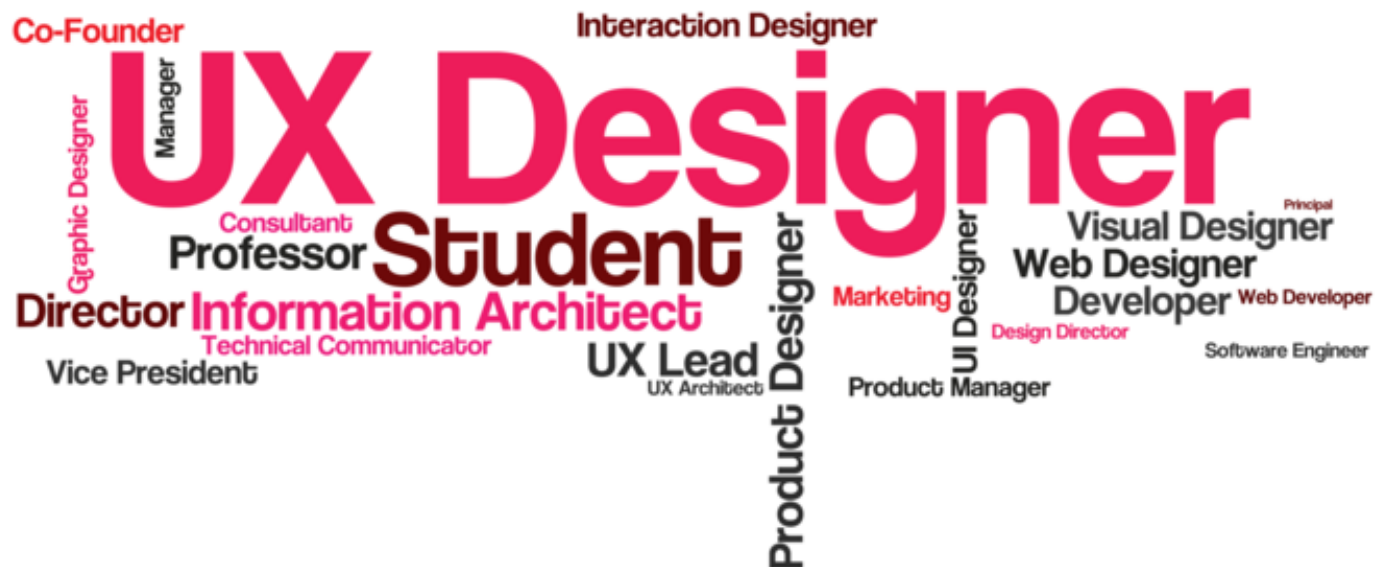

Fluxible started in 2012 as a 2-day user experience conference held in Kitchener, Ontario, Canada. Over the first five years it's grown and become a staple of the UX world.

For our 2017 edition we're presenting a week-long user experience festival, made up of three parts. There's the Fluxible Conference, which is the core of the festival, happening the weekend of September 23 & 24. There's a day of Fluxible Workshops on Friday September 22. And there are Fluxible Meetups happening from Monday September 18 through Friday September 22.

This week-long festival will carry on our tradition of exceptional programming to deliver another memorable and meaningful experience to a community of 1000+ attendees. For Fluxible Meetups and Fluxible Workshops we'll be at a variety of locations, anchored by the Communitech Hub in the renowned Lang Tannery building in downtown Kitchener, home to a thriving ecosystem of startups and well-established technology companies. For the Fluxible Conference, we'll be just minutes away at the CIGI Auditorium in Uptown Waterloo.

Who attends Fluxible?

Our past speakers have included UX professionals from industry and academia presenting on a variety of topics. Ample networking opportunities mean that all attendees have a chance to meet and engage with a diverse and passionate group of people. While "UX Designer" is the dominant job title amongst our Fluxible community members, we have attendees from a range of backgrounds, all of whom have a strong interest in UX.

What the Fluxible community says

"It was amazing! It truly was an experience (and a better one than I even imagined it would be) to learn, network, and have fun!"

"The event exceeded my expectations by the quality of presentations and the hospitality of the organizers and vendors."

"Fluxible is one of the most positive and creative UX conference experiences I've had, and showcases Design with a capital D. Authentic, friendly, and down-to-earth people having useful discussions on a variety of UX topics. No large egos. No arrogance. No BS."

"An intimate gathering of UX professionals with an eclectic mix of speakers. Good food, good music. Close to Toronto so it makes for a good weekend away."

"It lives up to the buzz – great content, great people"

"Extremely well thought out and organized. Insanely relevant speakers/topics covered. Amazing food / coffee / location. Great size of crowd."

"One of the best conference experiences I've ever had."

"No fluff here, only relevant and inspirational stuff. Interesting people, organizers who know how to throw a party, great food. A chance to feel a part of the UX community."

"The level of production and attention to detail is top notch and the speakers are some of the best user experience experts in the world."

"There was a cheeky, ironic, playful quality to the event."

"A unique fusion of some of the biggest names in UX design mashed up with the best of the Waterloo region in terms of arts, culture, and cuisine, with a friendly environment that encourages meeting new people and actually speaking with the epic speakers."

"The diversity of ideas was spectacular."

"Lots of interesting content, both theoretical and practical, which generated lively discussion. Extremely knowledgeable, personable, approachable presenters who participated in all aspects of the conference."

"I met a lot of interesting people in the design community locally, and made a lot of really great connections in the global community."

"I enjoyed the talks and workshops. I found the diversity of topics was well thought out. As a developer, I enjoyed learning more about the designer's perspective and toolset."

Why sponsor Fluxible?

Fluxible makes a big splash in Kitchener-Waterloo, but its reach extends much further. We promote the event to design and UX communities globally, and our speakers and attendees converge on our event from around the world.

If you're looking for UX practitioners to join your team, you know that competition is fierce. As a Fluxible sponsor, we'll help you stand out from the crowd and be noticed for your support in building the design community both locally and globally.

Fluxible can't happen without support from companies and organizations both large and small.

Past sponsors of Fluxible include BlackBerry, Boltmade, Brightspace by D2L, Communitech, Conestoga College School of Media + Design, Google, Igloo, Intel Security, Kik, Quarry, SapientNitro, and the University of Waterloo Stratford Campus. Why not join this stellar alumni group and sponsor Fluxible 2017?
